

This Literary Sisters event combines our love of reading literature with a lovely cruise along the beautiful Pacific Coast. We love to read and that experience is elevated when we have others to talk to about the books we both have read. This is why Book Clubs are so popular.

For one week, surround yourself with readers from all over the country. There are two days “At Sea” on this cruise. We will use those days to enjoy our special literary Events.

Experiences such as:

Literary Salons – We will talk about our favorite books in various genres. Facilitated by Stephanie Gates who facilitates our Literary Sisters online Book Club.

Author Presentations – Meet Authors who will discuss their books, their writing process, and more. Our Featured Author is Phyllis R. Dixon, author of Something in the Water, A Taste for More, and others. I have been reading her Family Drama stories since 2004 when she introduced herself and published the book, Forty Acres.

Silent Book Club experience – Reading together event, which are popular in recent years. The energy in the room is different when you are reading silently with other readers for a while.

Writing Workshops – How to get started, roles of editors, copy editors, proofreaders, publicists
